Terms & Conditions of Entry -

On entering this event, you are agreeing to the Terms & Conditions of Entry as stated by the event organiser as set out below.

You understand that the event organiser can amend these Terms & Conditions of Entry at their discretion and you will ensure that you have reviewed the Terms & Conditions of Entry prior to competing on the day.

Entry

- By submitting your entry you are agreeing to enter the event and agree to abide by these Terms & Conditions of Entry, to abide by the Rules of UK Athletics, and adhere to any instructions from race officials and organisers.
- You confirm that the information you have provided on your application/entry form is correct to the best of your knowledge.
- You will be provided with a Timing Chip that should be used in accordance with the instructions. The Timing Chip is on the reverse of your race number and if you fail to bring the race number on race day you will be required to pay for a new Timing Chip and Race Number.
- Age limits: For the 10k race, entrants must be 15 years of age or over on race day, proof of age may be required. There are no age limits in the fun run but children under 9 must be accompanied by an adult
- Entrants under 18 will be required to ask their parental/legal guardian to sign a consent form that is on the application/entry form. If you are entering this race on behalf of another person, you are authorized by them to accept these Terms and Conditions on their behalf. If entering this race on behalf of someone under 18 years of age, you consent to these conditions on their behalf as their parent/guardian and understand that it is your responsibility to attend with them on the day of the event.
- You will write on the reverse of your race number an emergency name and contact details for race day and any medical conditions you have, which the race organisers should be made aware of. You agree to wear your issued race number on your front throughout the entire event and you will ensure it is not cut, folded, or mutilated in any way.
- If you have a medical condition you must provide the event organiser and officials with details when registering for the event & set this information out clearly on the back of your race number.

Event Safety

- At all times during the event you must adhere to all instructions given by the event organiser and officials, and obey any markings, warnings or other signage that have been put in place to reduce risk. You will act in a manner that is safe to you and others around you and you shall not hold the organisers or anyone acting on their behalf responsible for any of your own actions that have caused accident, illness, injury or loss to you or others.
- Participation in the event is personal to you; you are strictly prohibited from swapping, selling or transferring or offering to sell, swap or transfer the place in the event or allowing any other person to wear the event number. Any breach of this Condition shall render the entry void. If you are found to be in breach of this Condition we reserve the right to exclude you from participation in future events.

- We strongly advise that you train for the run and follow a 10k training plan. If you do not currently engage in regular exercise please seek your doctors/general practitioner's advice before entering.
- You are not permitted to use the following items in the event: any wheeled device, any artificial aid, any pets or animals or any other item that could potentially inhibit the flow or safety of other participants or which we, in our reasonable opinion, deem may cause danger or risk of danger to you or other participants. Only participants running, jogging or walking will be allowed on the route. Pushchairs are permitted in the family Fun Run. Roller-skates, bicycles, scooters, wheelbarrows or other objects with wheels are strictly prohibited in both races. The course is regrettably not suitable for wheelchairs.
- You warrant to us that you will be on the event date, sufficiently fit and healthy to participate in the event unaided and in accordance with these Terms & Conditions of Entry. If you are in any doubt we recommend that you or your child/dependant seek medical advice. You are medically fit to participate in the event and understand that you enter at my own risk. You understand that you may be putting your health at risk if you are not capable of running the distance of the race in the prevailing conditions.
- You should wear clothing and appropriate footwear to complete in this event, and that any Fancy Dress attire is worn at your own risk.
- For your own safety, and to adhere to the UKA Rules of Competition, please DO NOT use headphones/ MP3 players or similar audio equipment (excluding bone conducting headphones). If you are spotted wearing headphones you may be disqualified.
